MCCBCHST CHRISTMAS GREETING 2020

The Malaysian Consultative Council of Buddhism, Christianity, Hinduism, Sikhism and Taoism (MCCBCHST) wishes to extend its warmest greetings to the Christian community in Malaysia as they celebrate Christmas. Merry Christmas and may the joy of the season fill the hearts of all Christians as they share their celebration in their families, churches and in their neighbourhood throughout the country.

The current pandemic that has lasted for over much of this year has taken an emotional and financial toll on millions in our country and the rest of the world. However, the crisis has brought Malaysians together as they shared their hardships with one another. Our wellbeing as a nation depends on the love and goodwill shown by the people, these being central themes in the message of Christmas.

We hope that the celebration of Christmas this year will help to bring Malaysians together in the spirit of caring and sharing, as in the case of the other religious festivals Malaysians celebrated this year under SOP restrictions.

May joy and love fill the hearts of Christians who celebrate the occasion in a restrictive situation in their homes and churches this year. In spite of the current circumstances may Christmas be a memorable and meaningful one.

As we approach a new year, we can only pray together that the coming months will see a major breakthrough in overcoming the devastating effects of the pandemic in our nation.

Once again, Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year!
